La Chaîne des Rôtisseurs via Vice Chancelier Honoraire Kimberley Iwamoto, General Manager of the Ranchmen's Club, has put together a Huron Carole Virtual Concert with one of her members, Tom Jackson. He is newly promoted to the Companion of Canada, the highest designation within the Order of Canada for his philanthropic work with those in need. He has been hosting the Huron Carole for over thirty years. This concert will be 60 minutes in duration, and the fee will be $25 per Chaîne member household. These funds will be donated to the Canada Food Banks.

It would be our recommendation that you find a local Chaîne Establishment, share their coordinates, and encourage our fellow members to order their daily take-out on Thursday, December 10th and meet us for a virtual concert beginning at 6pm mountain time, on Thursday, December 10th.

The process is easy. Simply click on the website <https://conta.cc/39uORm8> to purchase your ticket, and contact your local restaurants to place an order. Your link will be sent 48 hours in advance.
